

Claim

Output of help information on a mobile radio device, in which context-related help information for operation and/or input 5 functions is stored, whereby after a request the help information is output by voice output and one or more signaling buttons.